

A successful inclusive school is when a child is happy there

INTERNATIONAL REMOTE TEACHERS' CONFERENCE „INCLUSIVE SCHOOL”

VILNIAUS VERKIŲ
MOKYKLA –
DAUGIAFUNKCIS
CENTRAS

VESK
Verslo ir svetingumo
profesinės karjeros
centras

Date: 2023 April 25

Location: the conference will take place on the Google meet platform.

Participants: pedagogues and other specialists.

Moderator of the event:

Salomėja Vanagienė

14.00 – 14.10 The beginning of the conference. A word of welcome.

Šarūnas Gerulaitis, director of Vilnius Verkių School – Multifunctional Center

Lina Bargailienė, deputy for education at the Vocational Training Center „Žirmūnai”.

14.10 – 14.20

Educational support for a student with a behavioral and/or emotional disorder

Diana Jazukevičienė, director of the Education Assistance Service of Šakiai district, Education support specialist, NSA Inclusive Education lecturer, Delphi, „Women of the Year 2021” nominee, nominated „Lithuanian Teacher 2023”, Lithuania.

14.20 – 14.30

The experience of inclusive education in the United States of America

Linas Janulionis, director of Vilnius Fabijoniškės School, Lithuania.

14.30 – 14.40

Inclusive education in vocational training. Experiences of Italy and Iceland

Kristina Ališauskienė, Business and Hospitality Professional Career Center, Lithuania.

14.40 – 14.50

Elements of inclusive education in educational activities

Mileta Dočkienė, Radviliškis district Šeduva nursery-kindergarten, Lithuania.

14.50 – 15.00

I improve by moving – logarithmics for fun and active music listening

Jan Słuszniaik, Zdislav and Stanislaw Bytnar centre for education in Baryce, Poland.

15.00 – 15.10

Gifted, exceptional students with special educational needs or with learning potential students?
The problem of terms

Rūta Petrylaitė, leadership component of the Progress Program Millennium School coordinator, Lithuania.

15.10 – 15.20

Effective teaching/learning methods for working with special educational needs students in Lithuanian language lessons

Ingrida Kilkuvienė, Druskininkai Saulė primary school, VESK branch of south of Lithuania.

Break 15.20 – 15.30

15.30 – 15.40

Competences-based science education for children of kindergarten and preschool ages

Rita Stulpinienė, co-authors Violeta Ringevičienė and Rasa Žiemienė, Vilnius nursery-kindergarten "Rūta", Lithuania.

15.40 – 15.50

Embodied Learning in Inclusive Education

Iveta Ambrulaitienė, Šilutė Pamarys progimnazium, Lithuania.

15.50 – 16.00

Musical education of hearing – impaired children

Jelena Augaitienė, Vilnius Balys Dvarionas ten-year music school, Lithuania.

16.00 – 16.10 .

Inclusive education in the context of adult education – the experience of the Kingdom of Sweden

Inga Grinytė – Fedčuk, Centrum Vux - Haninge kommun, Sweden.

16.10 – 16.20

Development of an educational tool for performance of creative tasks

Anžela Tamašiūnienė, Aliona Vareikienė, Business and Hospitality Professional career centre, Lithuania.

16.20 – 16.30

Inclusivity action plan: from ideas to reality

Jolanta Savukynienė, Alytus Dzūkija School, Lithuania.

16.30 – 16.40 val.

The power of dance in the context of inclusive education

Andželika Moisejenkaitė-Knyzienė, dance teacher of Vilnius Verkiai school – multifunctional centre, Lithuania.

16.40 – 16.50 val.

Aspects of involvement towards successful music education

Ingrida Grigonienė, music teacher of Vilnius Verkiai school – multifunctional center, Lithuania.

17.00 The summary of the conference.

The international conference „Inclusive School” is organized by:

Ingrida Grigonienė, Andželika Moisejenkaitė-Knyzienė, the teachers of Vilnius Verkiai school – multifunctional center;
Vilnius Vocational Training center „Žirmūnai“
doc. dr. Giedrė Kmitienė.

The work of translators will be performed by:

Ieva Slipkutė, Stanislava Volodkovič, the teachers of Vilnius Verkiai school – multifunctional centre.

When a child is happy at school, it means that an inclusive school is successful.